

A laboratory setting with various glassware containing colored liquids. In the foreground, there are several beakers and graduated cylinders. One beaker on the left contains a yellow liquid and has a red-tipped pipette in it. Next to it is a beaker with a dark red liquid. Further back, there's a graduated cylinder with a dark green liquid. To the right, another graduated cylinder contains a yellow liquid, and a beaker contains a bright green liquid. In the background, a round-bottom flask is suspended in a clamp, containing a red liquid. A microscope is visible on the far right. The entire scene is overlaid with a semi-transparent blue filter.

Chemicals’ Industry Overview, M&A Trends and Market Intelligence

Industry Overview and M&A Trends

- The chemical industry experienced solid growth in 2024, with global production increasing from US$5,115.2 billion in 2023 to US$5,574.1 billion. This upward trajectory is expected to continue, reaching US$7,788.2 billion by 2028, driven by a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 8.7%. As the destocking cycle comes to an end and demand strengthens across key product segments, production levels are projected to rise further
- To enhance revenue growth, chemical companies have implemented cost-reduction initiatives and focused on margin improvement, all while continuing investments in decarbonization and innovation. These strategies are helping companies navigate cost pressures and maintain competitive advantages in an evolving market
- M&A activity remained strong, fueled by the need for consolidation and diversification. More than 50.0% of industry executives anticipate a rebound in M&A over the next 12-18 months, with a growing emphasis on sustainability. Many companies are using M&A as a strategic tool to advance their sustainability goals, integrating greener technologies and circular economy models into their operations
- Another key trend shaping the industry is the future of the European chemical market, which remains a focal point for investors and acquirers. Additionally, as the global energy transition accelerates, oil companies are diversifying into specialty chemicals to develop alternative revenue streams beyond fossil fuels, driven by the fact that petrochemicals will become the main driver of oil demand growth.
- The industry’s digital transformation is also playing a crucial role in driving growth and efficiency. By leveraging digital and analytics (D&A), chemical companies can optimize costs, enhance supply chain flexibility, and seamlessly integrate sustainability into operations. Manufacturing, in particular, is benefiting from data-driven decision-making, with advanced analytical models improving yield, efficiency, and operational resilience. Many companies have already begun modernizing legacy systems into Industry 4.0 operations, unlocking greater innovation and competitiveness
- Looking ahead to 2025, the chemical industry is expected to sustain its recovery while adapting to evolving market dynamics. Companies must balance short-term financial priorities with long-term strategic investments in sustainability, digitalization, and operational efficiency to remain competitive in an ever-changing landscape

SITUATION

Seale & Associates acted as exclusive financial advisor to Cosmocel in its partnership with Rovensa.

SEALE & ASSOCIATES’ APPROACH

Seale was engaged by Cosmocel, a key player in the dynamic biostimulants industry, with the objective of exploring a range of strategic alternatives. This vital initiative aims to empower Cosmocel to not only continue but also to significantly enhance its trajectory of sustained high growth within the vibrant and rapidly evolving biostimulants market.

OUTCOME

Rovensa added Cosmocel to its biostimulants global platform, representing a significant step forward in its expansion and growth strategy in the Latin American agricultural sector. This transaction not only strengthens Rovensa's presence in a key agricultural region but also allows it to leverage Cosmocel's advanced technologies and specialized solutions.

“This strategic integration highlights our growth ambitions in the BioSolutions international market and our strong commitment to sustainable agriculture”

“We are thrilled to welcome COSMOCEL to the group to strengthen our global presence as a reference provider of well-balanced solutions for agriculture. This strategic integration highlights our growth ambitions in the BioSolutions international market and our strong commitment to sustainable agriculture. The high quality and complementary range of biostimulants and bio-performance products of COSMOCEL, their culture, their market approach, the quality and commitment of their people and management, and their production capacities will give us a unique position to offer the best nature-based solutions for our distributors and farmers, leveraging on our global scale and capabilities.”

SITUATION

Seale & Associates acted as financial advisor to W.R. Grace & Co. (NYSE:GRA) on the sale of its specialty vermiculite business to Vermiculite Acquisition Corp., a sister company of Specialty Vermiculite Corporation. W.R. Grace’s specialty vermiculite business is a leading producer of branded high-performance vermiculite products with annual production of approximately 50,000 tons.

SEALE & ASSOCIATES’ APPROACH

Seale’s professionals ran a competitive auction process, managing multiple strategic buyers from around the world and select private equity buyers with industry experience. Seale also coordinated diligence across multiple locations in the U.S. and Canada while complying with the requirements of the trustees and the court managing the W.R. Grace bankruptcy process.

OUTCOME

The process resulted in a sale to a strategic buyer with significant synergies at a premium price and at favorable terms to W.R. Grace. This transaction was significant to W.R. Grace as it was the last business associated with W.R. Grace’s asbestos claims.

“We trust Seale because they consistently offer creative and valuable advice”

“Seale is one of our preferred investment banks because of their commitment to client service. They take the time to understand each of our business units and the dynamics of our unique specialty chemical and performance material segments in a way that other banks simply don’t.

We trust Seale because they consistently offer creative and valuable advice, and we know that the culture of the firm is built on integrity.”
